

Aleksandra Majstorović (1996, Čačak) attended the Art High School in Čačak and graduated in 2020 at the Faculty of Fine Arts in Belgrade, at the Department of Sculpture, under the mentorship of Professor Veljko Lalić. She has exhibited in numerous group exhibitions, participated in art and sculpture colonies as well as projects. In addition to her artistic work, she is the organizer of the 5th Symposium of Young Artists in the Gallery of the National Museum in Čačak. She won the award, "Shepherd's staff of Patriarch Pavle", "Kuzmanović for portrait-sculpture", FLU award for sculpture "Sreten Stojanović, sculptor".