

The Vittorio Calamani Philharmonic Orchestra

The Vittorio Calamani Philharmonic Orchestra was founded with the aim of bringing together the best Italian talents in a structure that places artistic quality as the foundation of its activities. The activity of the OFVC aims to qualify as a positive contribution to the Italian and regional cultural heritage and to promote the social and cultural growth that the country needs. Great attention is given to today's composers, as an important means of cohesion with modernity and comparison with the past. The Vittorio Calamani Philharmonic Orchestra is based in the Teatro Mancinelli in Orvieto and has performed in many of the most important theaters in both Italy and abroad. The orchestra has also been a guest of national and international prestigious artistic seasons and festivals.
